

HUMMEL, Friedrich (Fritz) (U)
 DOB: Unknown (9 February 1910 ?)
 POB: Unknown (Jena ?)

Information on file at this headquarters indicates that Fritz Hummel, born 8 February 1910 in JENA, Thuringia, joined the National Socialist German Labor Party (NSDAP) and the SA (Storm Troopers) in April 1933. In May 1933, HE accepted a job with the German Police Forces in ALTONA. In order to improve HIS position, HE applied for a transfer to the Kripo in ALTONA. From 1936 to 1937, HE studied at the Kriminalkommissar School of the Polizei Institut in BERLIN/Charlottenburg, and thereupon returned to ALTONA as a Kriminalkommissar. In May 1939, HE was inducted into the army at HAMBURG and was assigned to the 20th Division, Panzerjaeger Abteilung and served with that unit in the Polish Campaign from 1939 to 1940. In 1941, HE was trained at the Sabotage School in QUENTZ near RHANDENBURG, and upon completion was ordered to take over Referat II (sabotage) KC Spain in MADRID. HIS mission was to sabotage Gibraltar and Allied shipping in Spanish ports. Early in 1942, the sabotage activities of Referat II were directed against the British fortress at Gibraltar. In 1944 HE was transferred from MADRID, and had brief assignments in Italy and Holland. From November 1944, until April 1945, when HE fled to the Tirolian Alps, HE was in charge of Leitstelle II West. (F-3) HE was arrested on 18 October 1946. Because of HIS background it was recommended that HE be interned and that HIS political status be determined according to current (1946-1947) directives. (B-2) Our files do not indicate when HUMMEL was released from confinement. However, as of 1952, HE was residing in MADRID, Spain. (Unevaluated) Available records disclose no further pertinent information.
